

Chaz Matus (b. 1985)
McClintock High School

Dreams, 2003
oil on canvas
22½ x 28 inches

Dreams are the reality we cannot create but a reality we experience subconsciously. The experiences are shaped – shaped by the mind, interpreted for the body. Whether it be a beach, person or catastrophe. Dreams are real and should be taken seriously. Remember your dreams, write them down and try to involve them in your everyday life.

