Future Warriors, 2002

black & white sepia toned photographs
30 x 24 inches

Warriors are the protectors of their families,
clan and their tribe.

Warriors are the guardians of the old ways so that they are not forgotten.

Warriors not motivated by greed, political ambition or fame.

Warriors will not put themselves above others
in need.

And above all,

Warriors are the living spirits of our Grandfathers and Grandmothers.
