

Isaiah Hubert (b. 1987)
Alhambra High School

(Dis)member, 2003
ceramic
6 x 8 x 4 inches

Some people would have us believe that the individual is nothing separated from the group. My sculpture represents that without the individual the group is nothing. Without his individual parts he struggles to survive. The individual's parts do not survive on their own. The group from which they came dies as well. So the real truth is that everybody dies, alone or in a group.