Why should it hurt to be so alive?
Live and to breathe, such a chore.
Deadlines and due dates, homework and more.
Life just gets harder, life just gets tougher, life gets more stressful, and I can't take it anymore.
Here I am reaching; looking for some help... Can anybody see me? Can anybody hear me? Can anybody help?
I'm sitting here waiting, time is running out.
I can hear other people breathing but it's quickly fading out.
Why won't they help me?
Why don't they care?
